

James E. Latham

Christ Episcopal Church

The Spiller Antique Mall has been demolished to construct a new three story structure. Portions of the existing church have been renovated and the new addition contains a new Parrish hall, preschool facilities, a teen facility and new classrooms. Exterior features include an expanded courtyard, Porte Cochere and new off-street parking.

Owner: Christ Episcopal Church
Architect: Borden, McKean and Payne Architects, Inc.
Contracting Method: Construction Management

