

Mark Lancaster

Trinity Presbyterian Church

This is a new campus for a congregation previously located at the American Christian Academy. The complex is being integrated into the "Townes of Northriver", a mixed used development on Rice Mine Road. Phase One will start in February 2008 and include the Family Life Center. The master site plan has been developed to allow membership to grow to over 1,000 church and daycare members.

Owner:
Architect:
Contracting Method:

Trinity Presbyterian Church
CDH Partners
Construction Management

